

LAST COWBOY SONG

written by Bruce/Peterson, performed by Waylon Jennings

Intro: D

Chorus:

D

THIS IS THE LAST COWBOY SONG

G

THE END OF A HUNDRED YEAR WALTZ

A7

THE MUSIC IS SAD AS THEY'RE SINGIN' ALONG

D

ANOTHER PIECE OF AMERICA'S LOST

D

HE RIDES THE FEEDLOT, CLERKS IN A MARKET

A7

ON WEEKENDS SELLIN' TOBACCO AND BEER

A7

HIS DAYS ARE SPENT SURROUNDED BY FENCES

D

G

D

BUT HE'LL DREAM TONIGHT OF WHEN FENCES WEREN'T HERE

D

THE OLD CHISHOLM TRAIL IS COVERED BY CONCRETE

A7

THEY DRIVE 'EM TO MARKET IN FIFTY FOOT RIGS

A7

THEY'LL ROLL BY HIS GRAVESIDE AND THEY DON'T EVEN NOTICE

D

LIKE LIVIN' AND DYIN' WAS ALL THAT HE DID

Repeat Chorus

E

THIS IS THE LAST COWBOY SONG

A

THE END OF A HUNDRED YEAR WALTZ

B7

THE VOICES ARE SAD AS THEY'RE SINGIN' ALONG

E

ANOTHER PIECE OF AMERICA'S LOST

E

A

B7

E (repeat and fade)

THIS IS THE LAST COWBOY SONG