

SUNDAY MORNING AND SATURDAY NIGHT

written by Craig Wiseman and Danny Shirley

Intro: G A D D/G

BORN TO A FAMILY THAT TAUGHT ME WRONG FROM RIGHT

I LEARNED TO FEAR GOD AT AN EARLY AGE AND TO SAY MY PRAYERS AT NIGHT

BUT AS I GOT A LITTLE OLDER I STARTED TO STRAY

TOOK SOME TURNS OFF OF THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW WAY

HAD TO LEARN ABOUT ANOTHER SIDE OF LIFE
I HELD SOME WOMEN AND HELD THAT BOTTLE TIGHT
BUT I'VE NEVER FORGOTTEN THE WAY I WAS RAISED
I'M TORN BETWEEN THE THINGS I BELIEVE AND THE THINGS I CRAVE

Chorus:

THERE'S A ROADSIDE BARROOM WHERE I LOVE TO PLAY

ON MY WAY HOME THERE'S A LITTLE CHURCH WHERE I KNEEL TO PRAY

AND IT'S SUCH A FINE LINE BETWEEN WRONG AND RIGHT

SUNDAY MORNIN' AND SATURDAY NIGHT

Instrumental: C G D D/G

I GUESS I'LL WONDER 'TIL THE DAY I DIE
IF I'M A SAINT OR A SINNER DOWN DEEP INSIDE
WHEN IT'S OVER AND THEY LAY ME DOWN
WILL MY SOUL BE HEAVEN SENT OR HELL BOUND

Repeat Chorus

It's such a fine line between wrong and right

Sunday mornin' and Saturday night

Outro: C G D D/G D
